

King to Seek 10th Term

Congressman Cecil R. King of the 17th Congressional District today announced his candidacy for re-election in the June 3 primaries.

King, is now serving his ninth term in the House of Representatives. In 1956 he won a landslide victory with 72,633 votes over his opponent, outpolled President Eisenhower and ran far ahead of his own party in district balloting.

Five-times before he received the nomination from both parties in the primary elections and will again cross file this year.

The veteran legislator served ten years in the California State Legislature before going to Congress where he is today a ranking member of the powerful House ways and means committee.

He secured federal aid for the construction of the Redondo Beach harbor which is now nearing completion.

County Board Lauds Murdock's 42 Years Of Public Service

A resolution paying tribute to President Forrest G. Murdock of El Camino College for his major contributions to the people of Los Angeles County through his 42 years of public service as an educator and civic leader has been officially adopted by the County Board of Supervisors, it was announced today by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

Unanimously adopted by the Supervisors, the resolution notes that Murdock has announced his intention of retiring at the close of the current college year. He was extended the best wishes of the Board on his forthcoming retirement.

FORREST G. MURDOCK

Authorized by Supervisor Hahn, whose district includes El Camino College at Crenshaw boulevard and Redondo Beach boulevard, the resolution briefly reviews Murdock's career as Superintendent of the Centinella Valley Union High School District and the role which he played in the formation of the El Camino College district.

Murdock is the first and only president of El Camino College, which has grown from its original enrollment of 1100 in 1947 to 9800. Its campus, housing 14 permanent buildings, is considered one of the most beautiful in California.

The educator also has been active in civic and community affairs, the resolution notes, including service on the Board of Directors of the Salvation Army and YMCA.

The resolution is now being prepared in scroll form to be presented to Murdock.

After a year of major surgeries, Lou Arbetter, owner of Allen Jewelers, is back at his desk. Mr. Arbetter has been active in downtown Torrance for the past 25 years. He served as President of the Retail Merchants Association and an active member of the Torrance Lions club.

Candidate For Council

Virgil Hancock, 58, a service station operator, today announced his candidacy for the Torrance City Council in the April 8 municipal election.

A resident of 3531 Madison Court, Hancock came to Torrance in 1942 from his native Ft. Cobb, Okla. He is owner of two service stations and an Air Force veteran of World War II.

"My ambition is to help in any activities which will enable the youth of Torrance to have a more secure and brighter future."

They are the men and women of tomorrow and we must guide them," declared Hancock, father of a son, Dean, 15, and a daughter, Reta, 9.

The candidate was a high school athlete and an avid baseball fan, whether professional or Little League. He and his wife, Gladys are members of the Methodist Church.

Hancock is a member of the Torrance Elks, South Torrance Lions Club, Zeta Epsilon fraternity, and past president of the Watteria Businessmen's Club.

IN RACE: Virgil Hancock, service station operator, today announced his candidacy for the Torrance City Council.

WOMAN WINS PRIZE

Mrs. Harriet Morris, 4415 Newton St., Torrance was a guest on KNX Radio's "Matinee" program, 3:30-4:30 P.M., PST, Tuesday, Feb. 4 and identified the tune "Swinging On A Star" for host-ess Harry Babbitt to win a cosmetic kit.

Notice Regarding Multi-Message Unit Charges In the Los Angeles Extended Area

The increase in multi-message unit charges authorized by the decision of the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California effective January 20, 1958, will be subject to refund if the decision is annulled by a court of competent jurisdiction. (Possible refunds would apply to initial period message unit calls of five units or more, and to some initial period calls of three or four units. Refunds in no case would amount to more than one message unit on the initial period rate. Refunds may also apply to the additional period charges on some of these calls.) The Company will maintain the necessary records to make such refunds possible except customers using coin box telephones in the area affected may claim refunds provided they maintain the following information:

1. Telephone number from which you made the call.
2. Telephone number you called.
3. Date and time of day.
4. Amount deposited in coin box and further except that customers using telephones located in hotel rooms in the area affected may claim refunds from the telephone company provided they maintain the following information:

1. Name of hotel and room number.
2. Telephone number from which you made the call.
3. Telephone number you called.
4. Date and time of day.

The method of making refund claims by coin box users or callers from hotel rooms if refunds become due will be specified in public notices.
